Sheri Pedigo, a contributing author, is featured in Redeeming the Screens – Living Stories of Media “Ministers” Bringing the Message of Jesus Christ to the Entertainment Industry

Redeeming the Screens – Living Stories of Media “Ministers” Bringing the Message of Jesus Christ to the Entertainment Industry offers testimonies from world-class relational media evangelists telling their own stories of what brought them to receive Jesus and how the power of his death and resurrection on the cross helped them through the challenges in their lives.

We now live in a world of screens, from smartphones to the imposing vigil of the multiplex giants and to all the screens in between, pouring out images everywhere we turn. What messages are we sending out in word and image to the watching world?

Sheri Pedigo’s chapter, “Flight of the Butterfly,” is an honest testimonial that started with a young girl’s vision to one day having her voice heard throughout the world proclaiming the power of God’s love through music and words.
